What is Parent Council?

Hub Centre and Wasse Abin Junior School Parent Council is a link between parents, teachers, administration, community and School Board to encourage communication, involvement and cooperation with the goal of maximizing individual student learning and enhancing school life.

What Does Hub Centre and Wasse Abin Junior School Parent Council Do?

The Parent Council meets on a monthly basis to discuss issues affecting our children's education and seeks ways of optimizing this critical phase of early childhood learning. The Parent Council works as a team of parents, administration and teachers to ensure school policies, programs and services and the allocation of funds best support this learning.

As Council, we have a role in the development of the school's goals and priorities; the development of programs aimed at improving student health enhancing student learning; as well as a role in advocating for the rights of Hub Centre and Junior School students and parents.

Why Join us on Council?

Involvement in School Council is a meaningful, "hands-on" way to have a direct, positive impact on your child's educational experience. We hope you consider joining us on the Hub Centre and Wasse Abin Junior School Council.
